blonde actress Beverley Keys has found no trouble in attracting offers of work during the past year. She has been kept constantly busy appearing in TV shows like The New Avengers and Van der Valk, on top of films like The Spy Who Loved Me. But the best offer 21-year-old Beverley received was an offer of marriage. In June this year she married an antique dealer in Kingston-upon-Thames and despite all her work commitments, she found time to honeymoon in Corfu.
