PURDEY-HIT BY PASSION

JOHN STEED'S assistant Purdey has found herself a lover-and actually goes to bed with him.

All will be revealed in the latest series of THE NEW AVENGERS (most ITV regions, 8.0).

But the love-making by Purdy (Joanna Lum-ley) has to wait. In tonight's episode Steed (Patrick Macnee) encounters an old adversary, a dying secret agent (Clive Revill) who wants the bowler-hatted dandy to bite the dust, too.

This episode was produced in England, but three programmes in the series were made in France (where the original financial backing came from) and four in Canada (which is also putting in money). The series is being shown around the world, including France and Canada,

THAT upstaging mynah bird called Gunga Din nearly took over the opening edition of the new run of HAPPY EVER AFTER (BBC-1, 7.40).

The bird, which is supposed to belong to Aunt Lucy (Beryl Cooke), goes along when Terry and June Fletcher (Terry Scott and June Terry and June Fletcher (Terry Scott and June Whitfield) take the family aboard Terry's new cabin cruiser.

"At rehearsal." says Pippa Page, who plays the Fletchers' daughter Susan, "the bird kept shouting 'Pay attention, pay attention." But when we recorded the show it hardly uttered a cheep!"

FAIR COP

TV'S NEWEST comedy coppers arrive on the scene in THE FUZZ (ITV, 9:0). Michael Robbins scene in THE FUZZ (ITV, 9:0). Michael Robbins plays Det.-Sgt, Sidney Marble whose dreams of promotion are frustrated by Constables Cordwainer and Dickinson (Nigel Lambert and Mike Savage).

Their idea of an ideal "beat" is to sit in their crime car playing "I Spy."

Lynda Bellingkam gives a new meaning to a "fair cop" as the glamorous PC Pamela Purvis. First case: to find the thief who's nicking knickers.
